Attnd the Pre-Law Workshop, “Should I Go to Law School?”
This is a workshop hosted by CLA Career Services. You will learn about what type of skills you need to be a successful law school student and whether or not law school is a good fit for you.
(clacareer.umn.edu/workshops/index.html)

Participate in a CLA Career Services Employer Visit
CLA Career Services is hosting an employer visit to C.H. Robinson on November 14th. Visit their office and learn about the various career possibilities within the company. Sign up and learn more about this opportunity at the career services office, located in 411 STSS.
(clacareer.umn.edu/events_misc/site_visit_chrobinson.html)

Schedule and Attend a Career Counselor Appointment with CLA Career Services
Schedule and attend a career counselor appointment where you can talk about your future career goals and what steps you should be taking to achieve them.
(clacareer.umn.edu/aboutus/index.html)

Participate in Practice Interview Days
Practice Interview Days are offered through CLA Career Services and are a great way to work on interviewing skills for future employment and internship interviews. Check the Career Services website for specific days and times offered.
(clacareer.umn.edu/events_misc/pidayfall14.html)

Attend a Workshop on Informational Interviewing
Attend this workshop to learn the basics on conducting effective informational interviews. Informational interviews are a great way to learn more about careers, particular industries and/or companies.
(clacareer.umn.edu/informational_interviews/)
Attend a Workshop on Researching Organizations for Future Jobs and Internships
If you are going to be applying for a job or internship in the near future, attend this workshop to help you learn how to start the process of researching companies you are interested in.
(clacareer.umn.edu/workshops/index.html)

Schedule and Attend a Pre-Law Advising Appointment
If you are planning on applying to law school, this appointment will help inform you of everything you need to know when getting ready to apply.
(clacareer.umn.edu/prelaw/appointments.html)

Attend the Government and Nonprofit Career Fair
Attend this fair to network with many government and nonprofit companies who are looking for CLA students for jobs and internships.
(togpartners.com/govnonprofitfair/)

More than Just a Job: Connecting Majors to Careers Workshop
This workshop is hosted by the Center for Academic Planning and Exploration (CAPE). It will introduce you to resources that will help you explore career paths as a starting point to major exploration.
(cape.umn.edu/services/workshops/)

Attend the Job and Internship Fair
Register and attend the biggest job fair in Minnesota, located at the Minneapolis Convention Center on February 20, 2015. More than 200 employers will be their representing their companies and the many job and internship positions they are hiring for.
(jobfair.umn.edu)

Attend the CLA Workshop, “Resumes for Job/Internship Fair Success”
If you are planning to attend a job or internship fair this year, consider going to this workshop so that you can have a polished resume ready to give to employers.
(clacareer.umn.edu/workshops/index.html)

Attend the CLA Workshop, “Create an Effective Resume and Cover Letter”
This workshop is offered through CLA Career Services. Attend and learn how to create a resume and cover letter so that you can land a job or internship! You can attend this workshop on either Monday, November 10th, or on Wednesday, November 12th.
(clacareer.umn.edu/workshops/index.html)

Attend the CLA Workshop, “How to Land Your Dream Job/Internship”
This CLA Workshop will help give you the tools to have a successful job search and interview process to find the job or internship of your dreams!
(clacareer.umn.edu/workshops/index.html)

Attend the CLA Workshop, “Social Media and Your Job Search”
Learn how social media plays a role in your job search and how employers view you based on your social media profiles.
(clacareer.umn.edu/workshops/index.html)
Attend the CLA Workshop, “Job and Internship Fair Preparation”
If you are planning to attend a job or internship fair this year, attend this workshop to help you prepare how to talk with future employers.
(clacareer.umn.edu/workshops/index.html)

Have Your Resume Critiqued by CLA Career Services
Go to the CLA Career Services office during walk in hours to get your resume critiqued by a peer advisor. They can help you polish up your resume and have it ready for interviews and job fairs.
(clacareer.umn.edu/aboutus/index.html)

Create an Account in GoldPASS and Upload an Approved Resume
Create an account in GoldPASS, the University’s database where employers post job openings and are looking for U of M students to fulfill those positions. Upload your resume, then get started applying for jobs and internships!
(goldpass.umn.edu)

Create a LinkedIn Profile and Have it Critiqued
Connect to the world’s largest professional network so that you can explore professional opportunities and begin building your professional identity. Visit the LinkedIn Profile Checklist.
(university.linkedin.com/linkedin-for-students.html)

Leadership

Meet with an Engagement Peer Coach to Explore Engagement Opportunities
Meet with an Engagement Peer Coach to explore your strengths, interests, and goals and how to apply them in your daily life and/or explore engagement opportunities that are right for you.
(engage.umn.edu/content/strengths-engagement-coaching)

Attend a First Step Meeting to Explore Learning Abroad
No appointment necessary, just show up at the Learning Abroad Center during the designated First Step sessions and learn more about the programs offered and the resources available to prospective study abroad students.
(umabroad.umn.edu/about/advising)

Schedule an Appointment with Community Service-Learning to Explore Volunteering
If you are interested in volunteering, this appointment will help you discover where, when, and what organization would be a good fit for you to start your volunteering experience.
(servicelearning.umn.edu/volunteer/Get_Started_with_Volunteering.html)
Attend a Workshop on Pursuing a Student Group Leadership Position

If you are involved in a student group, this is a great workshop to help you prepare for running for a leadership position, whether that is in the immediate future or in an upcoming term. Emailclasye@umn.edu for more information.

Participate in the Student Employee Leadership Program (SELP)

If you have a campus job, join the SELP program and receive a certificate upon completion of the program. There are three requirements to the program which include attending workshops, getting your resume critiqued, and creating a LinkedIn account.
(engage.umn.edu/content/student-employment-and-leadership-program-selp)

Join the Community Engagement Scholars Program

This program allows you to gain significant experience in the community and get educational experiences outside of the classroom in real-life situations. Complete their requirements and gain a certificate as well as recognition on your transcript.
(servicelearning.umn.edu/cesp/)

Attend an Information Session to Participate in HECUA or National Student Exchange

Explore Higher Education Consortium for Urban Affairs (HECUA) and National Student Exchange (NSE), two programs that offer off-campus study both locally and nationally.
(offcampusstudy.umn.edu/hecua/)
(offcampusstudy.umn.edu/nse/)

Volunteer a Minimum of 20 Hours in the Community

There are plenty of ways to volunteer in the community through the volunteer center, service learning courses, or just searching engage.umn.edu.
(engage.umn.edu)
(servicelearning.umn.edu/info/courses/)
(servicelearning.umn.edu/volunteer/index.html)

Attend “ABC’s of Reading Training,” Offered Through Community Service-Learning

Attend this workshop to become a trained literacy tutor for children ranging from Kindergarten through Third Grade.
(servicelearning.umn.edu/trainings/literacy.html)

Attend MN Literacy Council Adult ESL Tutor Training

Attend this workshop to become a trained tutor for adults learning English and other core subjects, like math or computer skills.
(servicelearning.umn.edu/trainings/literacy.html)

Attend the Community Involvement Fair

This is a great fair to attend if you are looking to get involved in the community through volunteering, but are not sure where to start. Go to this fair to learn about the many organizations that are looking for student volunteers.
(servicelearning.umn.edu/CIF/)
Attend the “Service Learning 101 for International Students” Workshop
This workshop is developed for international students who are taking a course with a service learning component. This workshop will teach you skills to have a successful volunteering experience.
(servicelearning.umn.edu/trainings/slinternational.html)

Academic

Schedule an Appointment With a Coach in CAPE
If you are completely undecided on a major or career path, this is a great opportunity to have a coach from the CAPE office guide you through the process of narrowing down and choosing the right major for you. Contact their office in STSS to schedule an appointment.
(cape.umn.edu/services/coaching/)

Join the CAPE Major Network
Before you declare a major, consider talking with an upperclassman who is well into their major career. This can be very valuable in deciding if this major is the right one for you. Already declared? Share your experiences and knowledge about your major with students who may be interested in declaring as well.
(cape.umn.edu/services/network/)

Utilize Second Language Tutoring or Conversation During Academic Semester
Better your second language skills by utilizing resources for the language you are studying at least four times during one academic semester. This could include attending conversation hours, using tutoring resources, or participating in TandemPlus. Visit your department’s website to find their location and hours for tutoring or conversation hours.
(https://languagecenter.cla.umn.edu/tandem.php?menu=5&link=1)

Attend or Participate in the Undergraduate Interdisciplinary Conference (GLOS and Languages) or English Conference
Learn and discuss current research involving language and culture. Keynote speaker and/or a variety of breakout sessions offered.
(spanport.cla.umn.edu/ugrad/UIC2014.html)
(english.cla.umn.edu/ugrad/conference.html)

Use Smart Learning (Tutoring) for a Class
Smart Learning tutoring is a great way to get help with a difficult class. Attend 4-6 times this year and see how much your understanding of the course material can improve!
(lib.umn.edu/smart/tutor-schedules)
Attend a Peer Research Consultant Appointment
Through the University’s Libraries department you can meet one on one with a peer research consultant. They are there to help you through the process of writing a research paper, whether its finding sources, narrowing down on a thesis statement, or other ways you might need assistance.
(lib.umn.edu/services/prc)

Schedule and attend an Appointment Through University Counseling and Consulting Services (UCCS)
Schedule an appointment with University Counseling and Consulting Services. This can cover career, personal, and/or academic skills.
(uccs.umn.edu/appointments.htm)

Utilize Tutoring through the Multicultural Center for Academic Excellence (MCAE)
Check the MCAE for details on Fall 2014 tutoring hours. They can help you with math, physics, and general chemistry. They are located in Appleby Hall.
(diversity.umn.edu/multicultural/instructionalcenter)

Participate in Undergraduate Research Opportunities Program (UROP)
Conduct research with a faculty member, and receive a scholarship for your work! Applications and program proposals for the Spring 2015 UROP program are due October 6th, 2014.
(www.urop.umn.edu/urop.html)

Self-Help Materials and Videos at University Counseling and Consulting Services
Explore two self-help handouts or videos of your choice on active learning, self-awareness, study skills, or life balance.
(www.sass.umn.edu/fivefactors/selfhelpmaterials.html)
(sass.umn.edu/SASSvideos.html)