Fall Semester 2015

9/22 Andy Clarno (University of Illinois-Chicago)
Neoliberal Colonization in the West Bank.

9/29 Reuben Miller (University of Michigan)
You're in a room full of addicts! Prisoner reentry as a social institution and the ‘making up’ of the ‘ex-offender’.

10/13 Claire Decoteau (University of Illinois-Chicago)
The ‘Western Disease’: Autism in the Somali Refugee Community

10/22 Sharmila Rudrappa (University of Texas-Austin)
Markets in Life: Surrogate Mothers on India's Reproductive Assembly Lines (co-sponsored with the Immigration History Research Center)

11/02 Sanyu Mojola (University of Colorado-Boulder)
Love, Money and HIV: Revisiting Education, Wealth and Fundamental Cause Theory (co-sponsored with the Minnesota Population Center)

11/10 Jimmy Patino Jr, (UMN-Chicano & Latino Studies)
We will collectively workshop a chapter from his book-in-progress, ‘A Time for Resistance’: The Chicano Struggle for Immigrant Rights in the San Diego Borderlands, 1968-1986, to be circulated in advance.

11/24 Carrie Oelberger (UMN-Humphrey School of Public Affairs)
Bridging or Bonding? Examining New Partner Selection in International Grantmaking

Tuesdays, 4:00 - 5:15, 1114 Social Sciences